

Memorandum for: OSI

Subject: Alarich Bros & Alarich Brohs

2. Subject was felt by the last case officer to have handled him to have a certain amount of ~~an~~ competence because of his long experience in the business, which was unfortunately negated by his being so well-known in the intelligence ~~business~~ business and his being difficult to handle. He is apparently known in British, Russian and German circles. At one time he was weighing the relative merits of job offers which he had from the British, and ~~German~~ ~~British~~. His decision apparently was to go to work for the British at which point contact was dropped. He always had at all times an almost infinite number of schemes which only required a great deal of money and his management ~~in~~ of them. For the execution ~~of~~ of these schemes, he ~~had~~ usually had prospects spotted and ready to go, who were usually old cronies on his bread line or young ladies who had succumbed to his charms. He always adopted a most cooperative manner in discussion and then did what he wanted, usually at unneeded expense. The results were never very rewarding.
